In Memoriam

WHY?

A shot rang out, a body fell;
and an old story came out of the well.
I couldn't believe it, it wasn't true;
That someone would blacken our red, white, and blue.
My stomach ached; my tears they came as I quickly thought of my country's shame.
Yet it was true, though it happened so quick;
And I wondered of Oswald, could he be sick?
My heart went to Jackie, of her sorrow and pain;
I wondered just how she would sustain.
There was a ball game—a game I felt should not be;
I sat gazing but nothing could I see.
There wasn't a dance, the voices were mad;
Why in the world couldn't they understand?
The television I did watch; the paper I did read;
As I viewed the casket of the man we all grieved.
They took him to the White House where he had lived and worked;
And Jackie never left him, even with blood on her skirt.
Next to the Capitol where his brother did preside;
There was the casket with four honor guards at each side.
An estimated 250,000 passed by the bier,
Oh, how I wished I, too, could be there.
At the cathedral was read by request
John F. Kennedy's inaugural address.
My eyes filled with tears as I saw a young lad
Salute his father—'t'was, oh, so sad!
On to Arlington the caisson did go,
The horses moving so reverent and slow.
As they laid him on his grave site, you could hear from above
Fifty jets paying tribute to the man we all loved.
The shots were fired; the taps were played;
The flag they folded and to Jackie gave.
She knelt at the head of her husband's grave,
Lit the flame, and then she prayed.
She went away with tears in her eyes,
And her heart was aching deep down inside.
Five times she went back, each time to pray;
And never a word did anyone say.
To Jackie so composed and good,
You held your sorrow as only a great woman could.
From your finger you took your band,
And silently placed it on his cold hand.
But they gave it back; it is yours to keep;
What greater gift could a young woman seek?
To Caroline so young and so brave,
I hope you remember all your father gave.
And John John, what more can I say;
Except that I hope you grow up in the same great way.
We all will remember this wonderful man;
Who can surpass him? I think no one can.
He gave us peace at a crisis of war,
Which no man often did before.
Now all over the world, flags fly at half mast;
And he will be remembered as a tragedy of the past.
The greatest gift to him can be,
The ending of war and the coming of peace.
My question is this: can there be a reply?
Why, oh, why, must great men die?

President John Fitzgerald Kennedy and Mrs. Kennedy with John F., Jr., and Carolyn are shown leaving church services on Easter morning, April 14, 1963.

All GHS classroom flags were in mourning for 30 days following the assassination of President Kennedy on November 22, 1963.

All In A GHS Year . . .

During our '64 year we experienced sad as well as happy moments. The death of our President was a tragedy I am sure we will never forget.

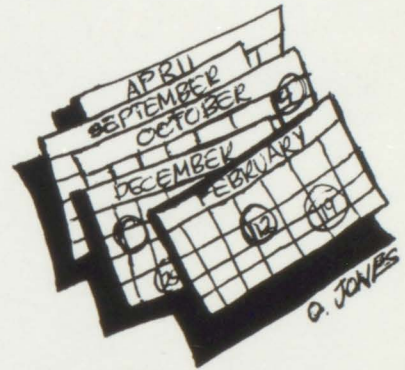

A year at GHS includes many activities; among them are sports events, club meetings, parties, and the daily routine of classes and homework. All together, the year has been a good one—we studied, made friends, and had fun.

This year, our assembly programs were held in the gym because we had "outgrown" the auditorium. Our enrollment this year was above the 1,100 mark which is more than the capacity of the auditorium.

Freshman Cordelia Murphy finds out that waiting until the last minute to clean her locker isn't the best policy. The innocent bystander is Julie Whirlledge.

We studied,

Senior Doug Blackport began a typical GHS year with a stack of homework. He seems to be asking himself, "Where shall I start first?"

As the year began, we found ourselves behind the old familiar grind of homework with many students working hard for that extra "A" to be eligible for the honor roll. The 55 minutes in study hall and library never seemed to be adequate time to meet all the assignments for which GHS teachers are noted.

In spite of the fact that homework came first, we also managed to find time for other activities. Games, school dances, club programs, and GYRAB were not ignored as we made new friends and renewed old acquaintances.

Although we often complained about homework and never having enough time to do all the things we wanted to do, we will probably look back with loneliness some day on the many things that we were privileged to do all in a Goshen High School year.

made friends,

When we think of Sunshine, we think of making friends and having fun. Various parties were held at the beginning of the year to help the new members get acquainted. Many things were gathered at the Sunshine scavenger hunt as shown by (top row) Sandy Sharpe, Nedra Brookmyer, Martha Plank, and Jean Redsecker, (bottom row) Pam Beer, Kathy Kosnoff, Nancy Ray, and Rosemary McConnell.

A new tradititon at GHS is the bonfire which was held before our football game with the Elkhart Blue Blazers.

Seniors Jackie Husted and Ed Hutchinson are being served Hawaiian food at the Junior-Senior Prom.

Seen at a dance after one of the games were Seniors Ben Barghahn and Peggy Cameron doing the latest dance.

"The Perfect Idiot"

Marleita Haney and Dave Pebble seriously rehearse their dancing.

Mr. Ronald Snell, Goshen High's new speech teacher, helps the students with their blocking.

Pandemonium breaks loose as the second act draws to a close.

The high school gang hates the boy-wonder Dan, with his "smart-me, dumb-you" attitude. Thus opens "The Perfect Idiot," a three-act farce chosen for production by this year's senior class.

In trade for tutoring the school's star athlete, Puff, Dan wants the gang to make him popular so his parents will let him go to college. Meanwhile, Dan invents a hypnotic box to use in helping Puff. Everything is rolling smoothly until some wild mishaps upset the applecart and provide a barrel of fun.

Sherry Milam presents a special lei to Mrs. Leland Yoder who lived in Hawaii and who spent many hours assisting in planning activities and decorations for the Prom this year.

The night of May 3, 1963, was an exciting one for students of GHS, as many were preparing to attend the Junior-Senior class Prom. The setting was one of beautiful blue Hawaii in the gym decorated with palm trees, grass huts, a volcano, and a fountain. Juniors and seniors danced till dawn to the music of Bob Ball's band from Elkhart and enjoyed delicious Hawaiian food. Mrs. Leland Yoder, who lived in Hawaii, helped to make this authentic food possible. Randy Saal, high school basketball star, and Marilyn Marquis, queen of the Goshen Relays, were crowned king and queen of the Prom.

Class sponsors who helped chaperone were Miss Lois Kyler, Miss Janet Whitelock, Mr. Harold Kastner, and Mr. Ralph Peterson.

An Evening In

Gary Claybaugh, right, president of the junior class, and Mary Jane Bixler, left, crown Randy Saal and Marilyn Marquis, king and queen of the GHS Junior-Senior Prom.

Diann Paul and her escort, Joe Dervin, and Jan Westfall with Rob Leveno enter into the land of Blue Hawaii, the theme of this year's Prom.

Ellen Peterson, left, and Vicki Goodenough, kneeling in front, and Beverly Butler, Jennifer Hoogenboom, Becky Inebnit, and Meredith Rumsey, dressed as Hawaiian native girls, welcomed the Prom guests.

Gary Claybaugh, Mary Jane Bixler, Richard Bartow, and Kathy Wasson are looking at a fountain, one of the unusual and beautiful decorations seen at the Prom.

Tom Rankin, Jane Ramsby, Nan Schnobelen, and Ron Miller are seen admiring one of the "special-built" Hawaiian huts.

first-year nurse's training student at Memorial Hospital, South Bend. Relaxing on Mrs. Hoke's lap is Fluffy, the family pet.

Mr. Hoke has taught in the Goshen schools for seventeen years. Many students know him as their Driver Education teacher. Other subjects which he has taught are Citizenship and World History.

20th Annual Relays Queen and Court

The 20th Annual Goshen Relays were held on Saturday, April 20, 1963. Queen Marilyn Marquis, was crowned by Henry Clason, Honorary Referee. Her court consisted of Lois Kauffman, junior; Beckie Yoder, sophomore; and Jane Luke, freshman.

Referee Henry Clason assists Marilyn out of the car, while Rob Leveno, chauffeur, looks on.

Fall Meets A New Homecoming Queen

The scene—a cool fall night at Foreman Field; the time—Friday, September 27, 1963, during the half-time ceremonies of the Goshen-Penn football game; the event—the crowning of the GHS Homecoming Queen for the 1963-64 school year; chosen for this honor was Senior Diann Paul.

Little Timmy Seifert held the queen's crown and a possible future successor, Patty Reynolds, presented her highness with a bouquet of red roses.

Showboat's A Comin'

The theme for the Sophomore Variety Show for the class of 1965 was "Showboat's A Comin'." It was presented April 5, 1963, in the high school auditorium. The student directors were Mike Rensberger and Beckie Yoder. Sponsors were Mr. Allyn, Mr. Hufford, Mr. Shortz, and Miss Kotterman.

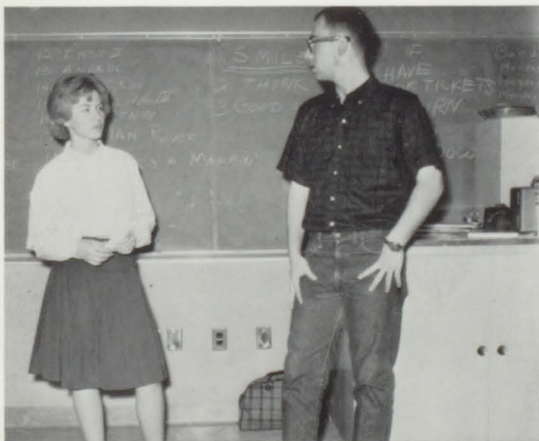

The Showboat's band was directed by Kim Dunnick. He is pictured here with Kay Winters, Kennlyn Kurtz, Martha Plank, Linda Baker, Steve Garman, Jean Redsecker, and Linda Brunk.

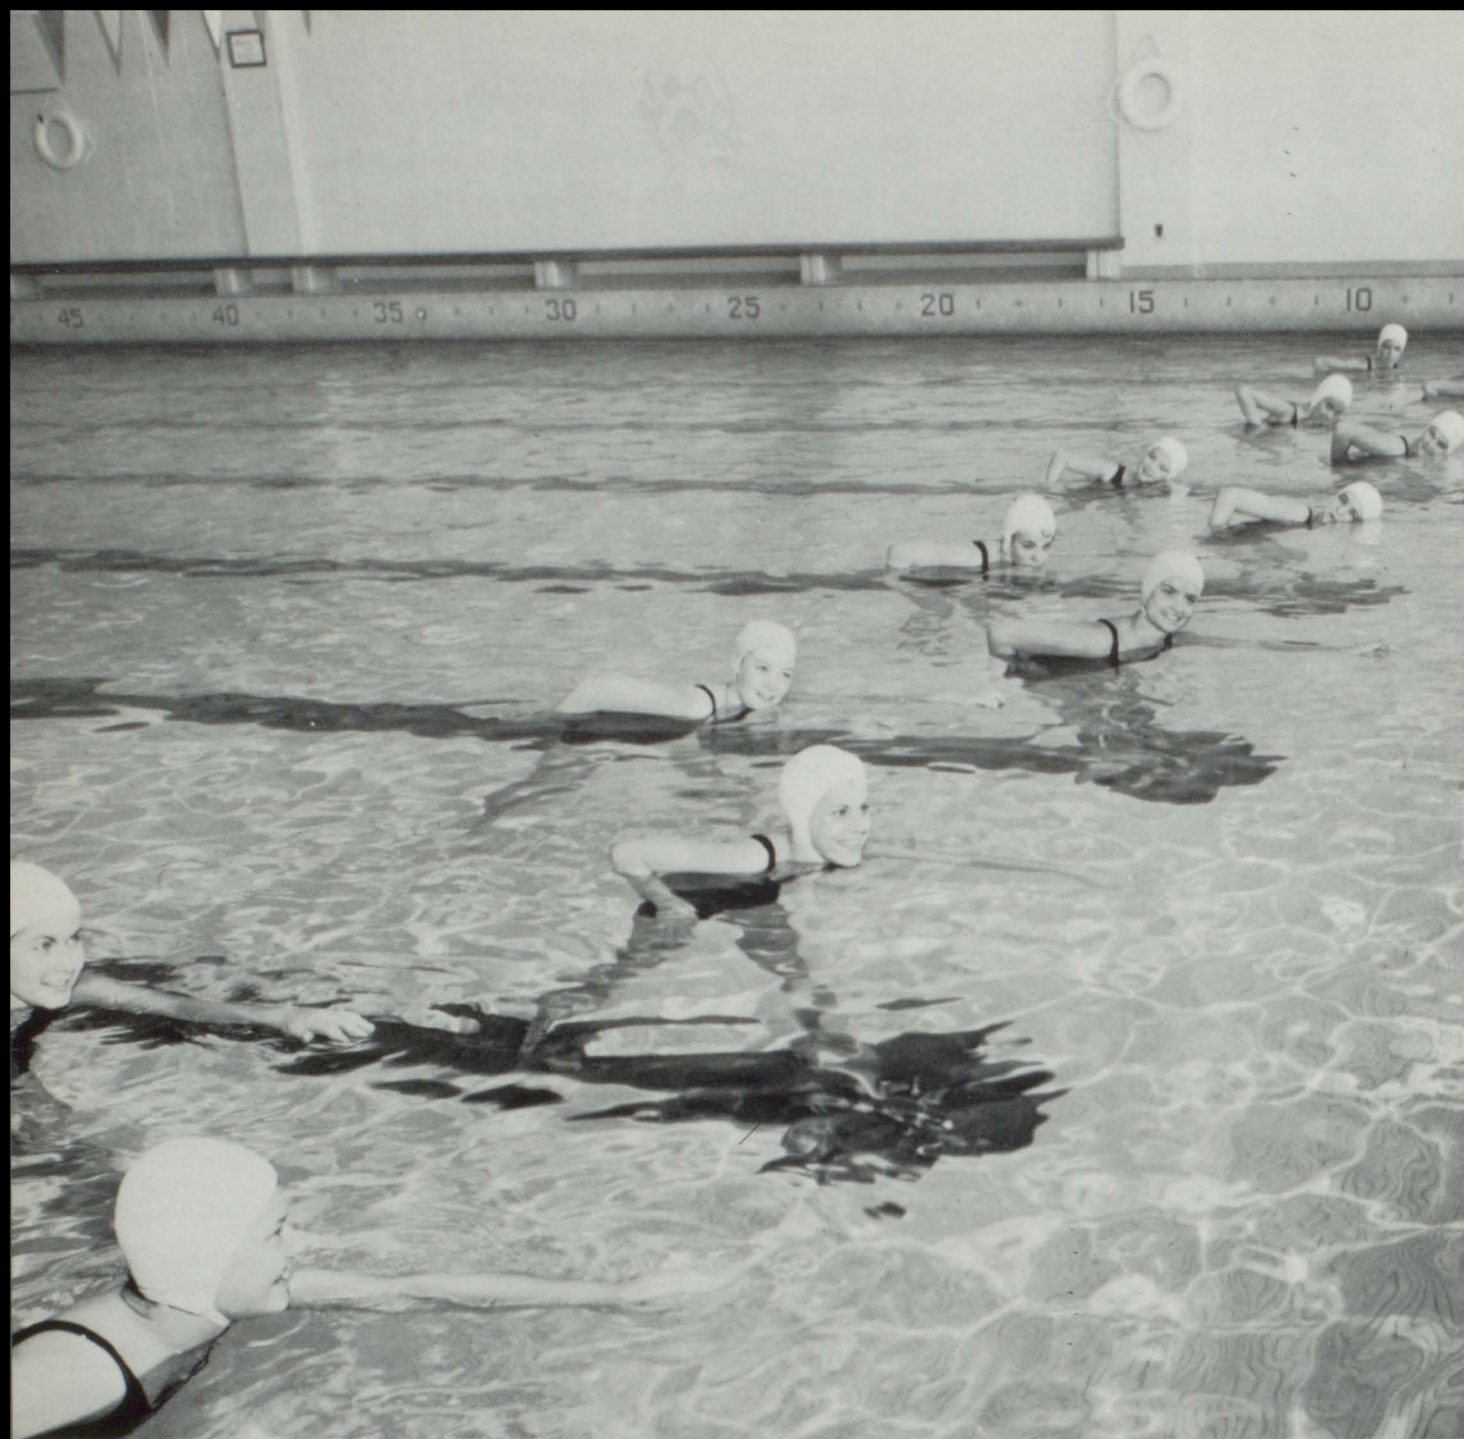

One of the highlights of the show was the performance of the chorus line. Members were Becky Inebnit, Bev Butler, Flicka Andresen, Sue Bickel, Cheryl Clason, Sandy Sharpe, Stephanie Bergman, and Nedra Brookmyer.

Student directors for the show were Beckie Yoder and Mike Rensberger.

Mary Riddle and Dave Lewallen started the program with a comical dialogue.

Miss Yoder is instructing a freshman swimming class on the proper way to do the American Crawl.

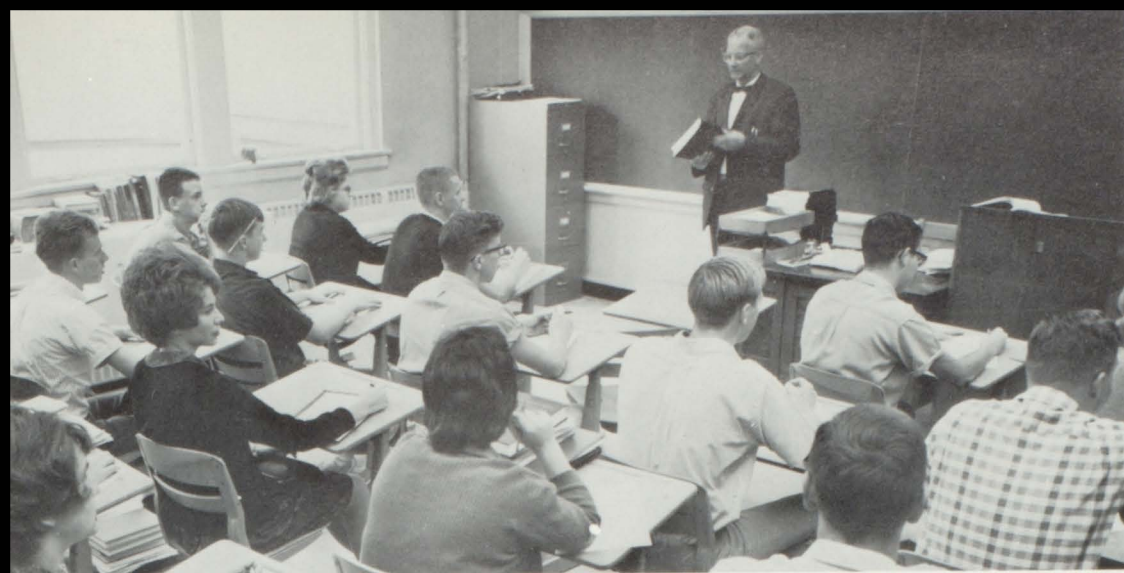

Classrooms . . .

Most GHS classes are a challenge. Lessons, classwork, and homework comprise the major portion of a GHS student's day from September to June. Swimming is taught in all physical education classes. Together, teachers and students create the spirit, feelings, and ideals that make GHS what it is today.

Miss Eda Margaret Barnes, GHS librarian, is shown helping Jim W. Miller, senior, select a book for his research paper. Our library now numbers 6,000 volumes.

Mr. Gibson discusses the importance of early American literature with his class.

We Find English Necessary Every Day

Our English teachers strive to teach us to effectively write and speak our language and to appreciate the things this skill can do for us. To every one of us, English is a tool for living as we learn to express our scattered thoughts in organized ideas and opinions. Students learn to be creative in Debate, Dramatics, and Speech. Four years of study are offered with a sequence of courses designed to produce competency in our own language. Miss Barbra Zook is head of the English Department.

Under Miss Zook's guidance, her first-period class practices reciting in the Middle English dialect.

Science and Math are Necessary

Cheryl Clason, Larry Chrispyn, and Judy Keim observe the emission of light from gases excited by a high voltage.

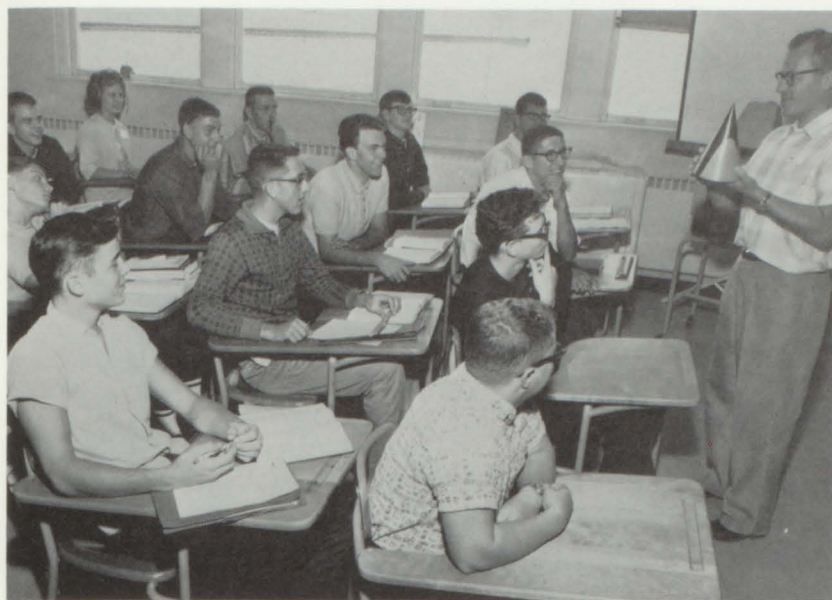

What makes it grow? Why does this element burn in water? How fast does a lead weight fall? These and the answers to many other puzzling questions can be found in the science courses offered at GHS. Each student is required to take at least one year of science. As a freshman, one usually fulfills this requirement by taking Biology. In Chemistry, juniors and seniors have the opportunity to perform interesting experiments and learn the composition of matter. The fundamentals of heat, electricity, light, and sound are discussed in Physics classes. Applied Science is a practical course open to all who do not wish to progress further into the realm of science. Mr. Elmer Bowers is head of GHS's Science Department.

Students in Mr. Haney's first period Physical Science class discuss why the earth is round.

in an Advancing World

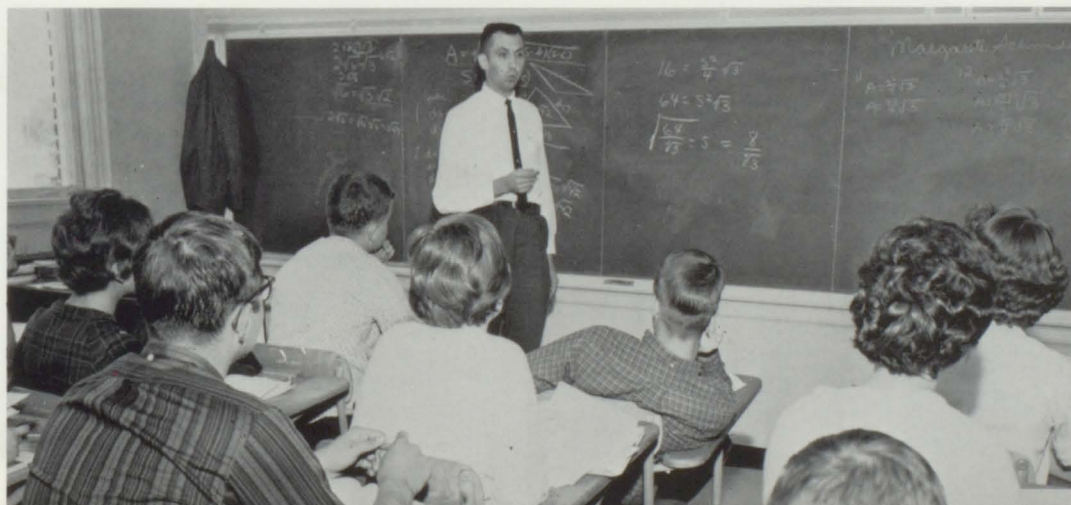

Mr. Blosser discusses the structure of a cone with his College Algebra-Trigonometry class.

Mr. Doba's class studies for an approaching test.

In the math courses offered at Goshen High, a student has ample opportunity to become well acquainted with algebra, geometry, trigonometry, and college algebra. Students are taught to think, not work problems mechanically. Algebra proves to be helpful later in chemistry where formulas are necessary. Trigonometry is a must for physics. Knowing how to use a slide rule is indispensable for working the long, complicated problems in either chemistry or physics. These are a few of the immediate uses students can make of what they learn in various math classes.

Mr. Frey explains a geometry problem to his 4th period class.

While Mr. Peterson discusses a problem with one of his students, the other boys work on their drawings.

We Work With

Mr. Warstler explains the parts of a metal-turning lathe to Merle Garber, Matt Howard, Dan Hanna, and Eddie Bechtel.

GHS is fortunate in having a well-equipped new shop building (built in 1960) in which instruction is given in metal-working machines, woodworking, architectural and mechanical drawing, blueprinting, and auto mechanics. Courses range from those exploratory in nature such as General Shop to those in which specialized instruction is offered such as Vocational Machine and Auto Shop, Advanced Woodworking, and Advanced Drawing.

Mr. Alvin Warstler is head of the GHS Industrial Arts Department.

Few classes perhaps yield as immediate a benefit as do the clothing classes at GHS. Here, a girl can experience the delight and satisfaction of wearing the good-looking suit which she has just completed in her clothing class. In addition to learning the art of sewing, the distinguishing characteristics of cottons, woolens, and man-made fibers are taught.

In the cooking classes, the girls learn to bake breads, cook meats, can fruits and vegetables, and to make jellies and preserves. They also learn to plan well-balanced meals that have a high nutritional value.

Miss Blair helps Patty Curtis and Delores Ditmars select fabrics for a coming project.

Our Hands, Too

Under the guidance of Mr. Leichty, Goshen High's new art instructor, students have opportunity to learn and use the principles of art. Three years are offered: Art I, Advanced Art, and Designs and Crafts. Even though all students may not plan to go into the field of art, the wide course of study and thought-producing projects can be applied to many occupations.

Molly McLoughen and Jill Russell work on their design series in Advanced Art.

Mr. Fancil, at the console, listens to students reciting in our new language lab. He can listen to each student's enunciation, fluency, and accuracy, and give individual help through the switch controls.

Language Promotes Better Understanding between Peoples

GHS's new Spanish teacher, Mr. Thomas O'Dea, discusses Spain's geography with his 2nd period class.

Students have an opportunity to learn to speak Spanish and French and to learn the significance of Latin as the foundation of our own language. Studying a foreign language includes not only learning the languages, but also the history of the country and customs of the people. With the aid of the newly-installed laboratory, students can now learn to speak more fluently and confidently.

Mr. Shires shows students of his Sociology class a chart depicting farm migration.

Social Studies is that area of knowledge concerned with the structure and impact which governments of nations have had upon the world. The history of the U.S. and other countries is also studied. Seven courses are offered at GHS. One may study the period from prehistoric times to the Korean War in World History, while the beginning of colonization to the present administration in power is studied in United States History. A helpful aid to the Civics and U.S. History student in his study of current affairs is the "American Observer." Sociology and Psychology are studies of man's relationships with his fellow man; economics is a study of production, distribution, and consumption of goods. Required for all freshmen is Citizenship, the study of our American Constitution, traditions, and laws.

Social Studies Advances Understanding of World Problems

Gwyn Bontrager locates a point on the map while Sue Saal, John Fesler, and other members of Mr. Harley's U.S. History class look on.

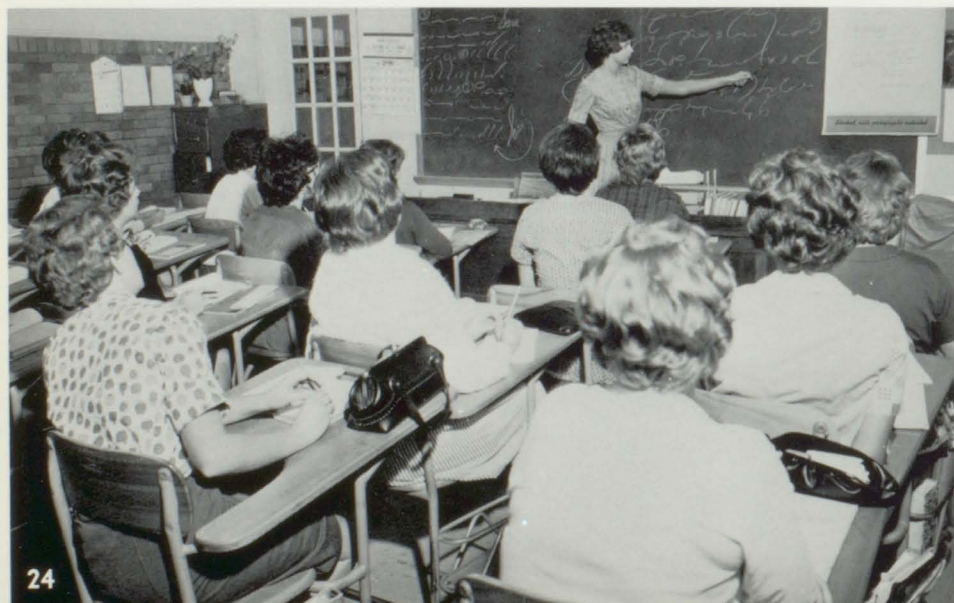

Peggy Cameron and Leslie Heeter use the dictaphones in Office Machines.

We Learn Efficiency in Business

Business courses are offered to those who seek a position in the business world or want them for personal use. In shorthand, students learn to take dictation and transcribe mailable letters with office competency as the standard of achievement. The use and a familiarity of calculators, transcribing, and duplicating equipment are taught in Office Machines. Most GHS graduates choose to take either business or personal typing during their four years. Also offered are Bookkeeping, Business Law, Retailing, and Secretarial-Clerical Training. Miss Ethel Grogg is the chairman of the Business Education Department.

Miss Grogg tells her 4th period class what traits are expected in a good secretary.

Janet Duncan reads shorthand outlines to the 4th period Beginning Shorthand class.

The count is two-and-two as students play a game of softball in Miss Low's gym class.

We Build Our Bodies as Well as Our Minds

Probably the only class in GHS without homework is physical education. Through calisthenics, games, swimming, and other group activities, it seeks to improve coordination and build physical stamina. Relaxing nerves, strengthening muscles, and learning the rules of group games are the aims and accomplishments of physical education. Health, a supplement to gym work, is concerned with personal and community health problems. Some time is also spent on drivers' training.

Mr. Hoke prepares to start another hectic session with the new drivers.

The responsibility of keeping a constant supply of clean towels, swim suits, gym uniforms, and cafeteria linens belongs to Mrs. Wanda Paluchniak.

Our purpose and pleasure is studying and performing good music. The direct objective of the choral department is the developing of the inherent voice and the understanding of the aesthetic beauty of choral music.

Our many activities included the "Fall Concert," Christmas Telëcast over WSJV. "Christmas Concert," "Spring Concert," "Four-City Choral Festival" at LaPorte, "Senior Concert," "Baccalaureate" and "Commencement."

Ensembles are encouraged by Mr. James Greiner, director of the choir and of our popular Crimsonaires!

This year the choir also participated in contests. There is always room for improvement for which we are ever striving.

Jim Pressler was honored to be selected as a member of the 1964 United States of America High School Chorus. This is part of the "FIRST CHAIR OF AMERICA" organization in which honor recognition is given to outstanding directors and bands, orchestras and choruses throughout the United States.

Throughout the year Barbara Fretz and Jeannie Hostetler did a wonderful job as accompanists for the choir.

MADRIGAL—Bottom row: E. Smucker, A. Brookmyer. Second row: N. Swihart, B. Swartley, I. Schertz. Third row: M. Smucker, Jim Pressler.

Our Concert Band

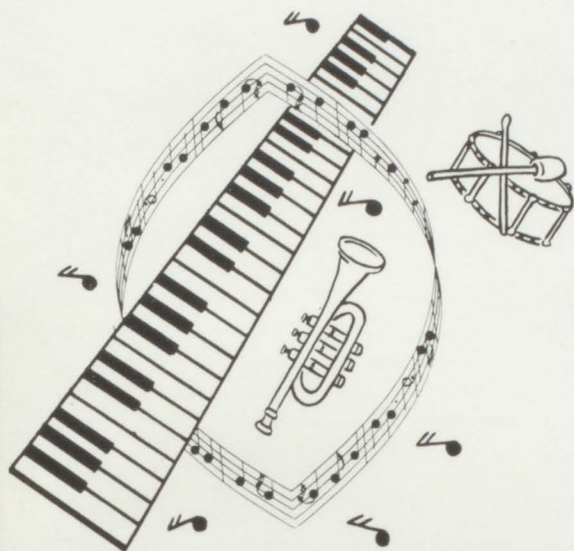

Kim Dunnick, First Chair cornetist and soloist with the Crimson Band, will represent Goshen High School this summer as a member of the United States of America High School Band. This highly select band of high school musicians will perform for the New York World's Fair this summer and for the Lions International Convention at Toronto, Canada. Kim is also a member of the Indiana All-State Band for 1964. He will perform with this band at Highland High School, Anderson, Indiana, on April 3 and 4.

The Crimson Concert Band, under the direction of Mr. Robert Sharpe, enjoyed a wonderful and busy concert season. Starting with a concert in November for the National Convention of the American School Band Directors Association to the Annual Senior Concert in May, the one-hundred-eight piece symphonic band performed some of the world's great literature for band. Again as in the past, the band participated in the annual spring State Band Contest, this year acting as the host school. The band, this year, was selected by First Chair of America to be presented in their annual yearbook as one of the outstanding high school bands in America.

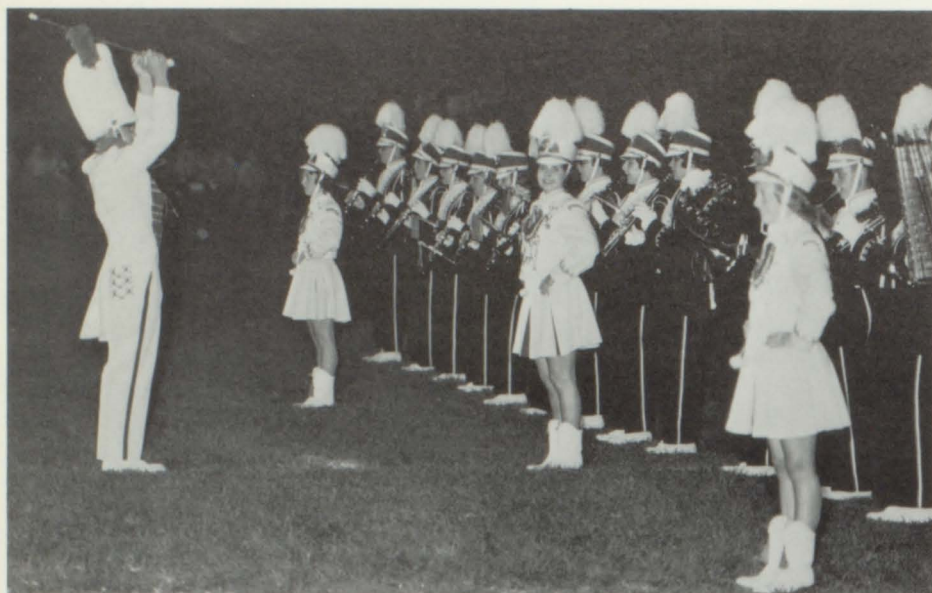

Brings Home Top Honors

FIRST CHAIR PLAYERS AND SOLOISTS—First row: B. Kauffman, G. Hartzler, L. Kauffman, R. Pletcher, N. Briggs; Second row: T. Young, L. Haney, M. Plank, R. Rolston, E. Gantz, C. Langseth, T. Ganger, P. Stevens, J. VanHout; Third row: K. Dunnick, J. Phend, K. Massanari, J. Tassin, R. Neff.

The GHS Crimson Marching Band, consisting of 104 members, enjoyed a most successful marching season. In addition to performing its sparkling precision drills for four home football games, the Crimson Band traveled to Mishawaka to perform in the Partners in Progress Contest and to Butler University to perform at the half-time show of the Butler-Bradley game. The latter was for the Indiana Band Masters Association Marching Clinic. Drum Major for the band this year was Geoff Hartzler, with Kathy Paflas as head majorette.

GHS Orchestra

The Goshen High School Orchestra under the direction of Mr. Greiner is organized for those music students interested in learning and studying symphonic music. This year much time was spent reading music to better develop the attitudes of the part music plays in everyday life. This year the orchestra participated in the winter and senior concerts and many members attended the Manchester String Festival on March 14. Sam Lehman, the concertmaster, was a member of the North Central ISTA Orchestra at South Bend.

STRINGS—L. Muntz, J. Weaver, J. VanHout, K. Kerr.

WOODWINDS—J. Hostetler, C. Langseth, L. Cobbs, R. Pletcher, A. Kauffman, N. Runchey, D. Herr.

BRASS—C. Harrel, K. Dunnick, K. Massanari, B. Conway, J. Tassin, R. Neff.

Mr. Greiner is shown directing the GHS Orchestra in one of its daily practices.

PERCUSSION—K. O'Dea and J. Redsecker. Not shown in this section is Mark Harper who plays the bass drum.

STRINGS—S. Lehman, J. Miller, M. Riddle, L. Veenstra, P. Carpenter, D. Miller, J. Lehman.

Superintendent's Office

Lee L. Eve has served as the superintendent of Goshen city schools since 1959. He is active in state organizations for superintendents and, locally, gives freely of his time to serve on the board of directors of fund-raising and charitable organizations. His ready wit, repertoire of good stories, and wide experiences assure his popularity as a speaker in school, civic, and church groups.

Mr. Harold Bechtel, Director of Curriculum and Research of the Goshen city schools, is shown seated at his desk in the Administration offices on South Fifth Street.

The 1963-64 Board of Education consists of four men and one woman who have been selected by the city council to act as a policy-making body for the Goshen public schools. These dedicated citizens give much of their time to consider issues and make decisions which will result in a more effective school system for the children and youth of this area.

Mrs. Roberta Rowell and Mrs. Josephine Young are the competent secretaries who work in the Superintendent's office.

Our Principal and his Staff

Mr. Fields, now in his fourth year as principal, continues to work tirelessly toward strengthening the academic and curricular standards of Goshen High School. Always seen at all GHS events, students have come to respect his concern that they be good citizens at all school events here or away. Mr. Fields received both his Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Indiana University. At present, he is a candidate for the Doctor of Education degree from Indiana University.

Mr. Robert B. Mathews, the second half of our administrative team, is a long-time resident of Goshen. Starting as a Business Education teacher at Goshen High School, he was appointed Assistant Principal in 1951. He also serves as auditor of extracurricular accounts and is now teaching in the Math Department.

"It is now time for our announcements for today." Mr. Fields speaks to the student body via the public-address system each day at 1:00, informing them of activities and other matters essential to the smooth running of GHS.

Mrs. Fred Blosser, secretary in the principal's office, is well known to all GHS students. Whether looking up one's locker combination, issuing a parking permit, or keeping account of every penny in the extracurricular funds, her infectious personality is always appreciated.

Guidance and Attendance

Mr. Carl Reiner, Registrar, is shown selecting a cumulative record folder from the files in the Guidance offices.

Mr. Kastner, counselor, is assisting Carl Winnebold with his schedule.

If a boy has been absent, he must secure an admission slip to classes from either Mr. Bemenderfer, attendance officer for the Goshen City Schools, or Mr. Mathews, assistant principal.

Miss Jean Tribolet, girls' counselor, confers with absentees and assists in the planning of schedules.

Mrs. Dorothy McFarland, school nurse, is shown here carrying out her duties in the Health Center. Here students who are ill or need first aid are given attention.

Mrs. William Ogle and Mrs. Otis Hoover are shown at the bookstore window.

Meet our Faculty . . .

Biology is taught by MR. JOHN ALLYN who is also a junior class sponsor.

MRS. DOROTHY AMOS spends most of her time teaching Latin and English.

MISS BARBARA ARNOLD is the business typing teacher and a sponsor for Sunshine Society and Future Teachers of America.

MISS EDA MARGARET BARNES, our librarian, helps GHS students select good books to read and is a sophomore class sponsor.

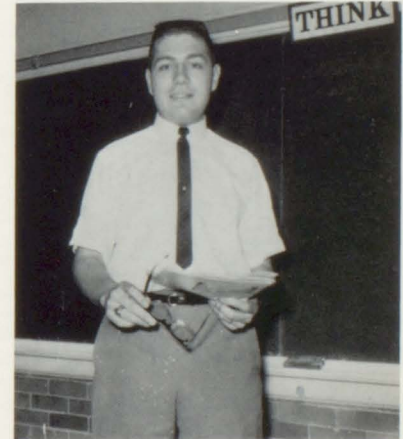

MISS NORMA LEE BLAIR, new teacher to GHS this year, teaches clothing and is a junior class sponsor.

MR. FRED BLOSSER, head of the Math Department, teaches solid geometry, advanced algebra, and college trig. He is sponsor of the Euclidean Club and official scorekeeper at all the basketball games.

MR. ELMER BOWERS is chairman of the Science Department and teaches chemistry and physics. He is also sponsor of the Science Club.

MR. JAMES CHANDLER teaches algebra and geometry and is a freshman class sponsor.

Who Guides

Civics and world history are taught by MR. HENRY CLASON. He is also a sponsor of the sophomore class.

MR. ARTHUR COSGROVE is our head basketball coach and teaches driver training and physical education.

MISS ETHEL GROGG, head of the Business Education Department, teaches bookkeeping, typing, and secretarial-clerical training. She is also a sponsor of Future Teachers of America.

MRS. RUTH HALPIN spends her days planning and overseeing the preparation of nutritious meals for hungry GHSers. She also teaches classes in homemaking.

MR. LARRY HANEY, our new teacher in the Science Department, is busy teaching algebra, applied science, and chemistry. He is also a senior class sponsor.

MR. RICHARD HARLEY, another new teacher in GHS this year, teaches U.S. history and is head of the Social Studies Department.

MR. CHARLES HART teaches office machines, business law, and business arithmetic. He is a sophomore class sponsor and secretary of the Goshen Relays.

MR. BURDETTE HOKE teaches driver education and citizenship and is in charge of campus patrol.

Psychology is taught by MR. HAROLD KASTNER. He also spends his days counselling and is a senior class sponsor.

to Future

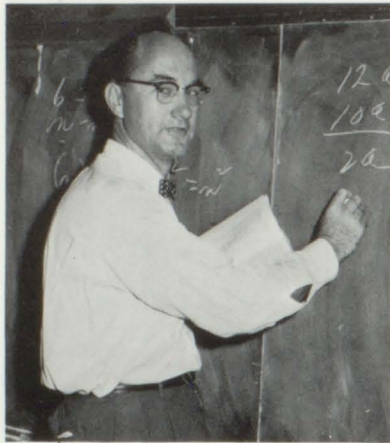

MISS LOIS KYLER teaches English to freshmen, sophomores, and juniors. She is also a senior class sponsor.

MR. RODERICK LIECHTY is our new Art Department chairman. He teaches art II and designs and crafts as well as Junior High art.

MISS ALICE LOW, new to Goshen High School this year, teaches physical education and is a sponsor of the Girls Athletic Association. She is also one of the freshman class sponsors.

In addition to teaching algebra, MR. ROBERT MATHEWS is the assistant principal and sponsor of Student Council and the Council for Student Organizations.

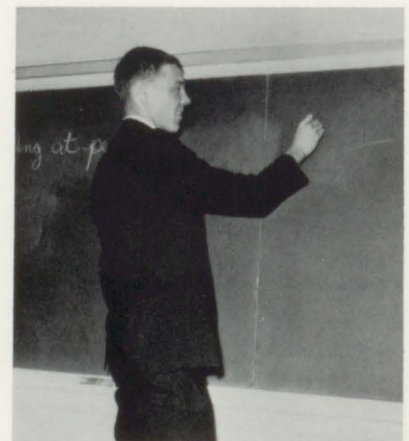

Most GHS students are learning their Spanish this year from MR. THOMAS O'DEA, one of Goshen High School's own graduates. He is also sponsor of the Spanish Club.

MR. RALPH PETERSON teaches advanced woodworking, mechanical drawing, and general shop. He is also a senior class sponsor.

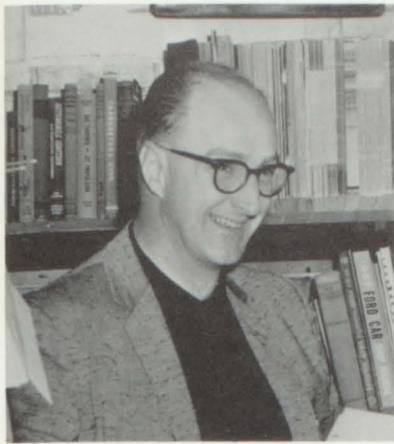

MR. CARL REINER, Registrar, is also a teacher of math and a sponsor for National Honor Society.

MR. DAN REYNOLDS is a new teacher in the English department. He is also a junior class sponsor.

Success

MR. ALLEN ROGERS teaches vocational-auto mechanics and related science. He is also responsible for organizing our ushers for athletic events.

MR. ROBERT RUMSEY teaches general business, math, and literature.

MRS. CAROL SCHMIDT, a teacher new to GHS this year, teaches sophomore English and Spanish and is a freshman class sponsor.

MISS MARY K. SHAFFER teaches most of the Latin classes at GHS and takes delight in seeing her students do well in state and national contests. She is also sponsor of the Latin Club.

GHS band director and music supervisor for all Goshen schools is MR. ROBERT SHARPE. He is sponsor of the concert, marching, and pep bands.

MR. NORMAN SHIRES, one of the new teachers at GHS this year, is kept busy teaching sociology, civics, and economics. He is also assistant football coach, intramural director, and freshman track coach.

Speech and English I are taught by MR. RONALD SNELL, another new GHS teacher. His extracurricular activities include coaching the debate team, the junior and senior class plays, and sponsoring the Speech Club.

MR. TOM SOVINE spends his days at GHS teaching U.S. history in room 309 and producing trophy-winning tennis teams.

Our Faculty

Our head football coach and teacher of physical education is MR. JOE SPRINGER. He also coaches wrestling and track and is a "G" Club sponsor.

MR. PAUL B. UNDERWOOD teaches health and citizenship. He is also Athletic Business Manager and Director of the Goshen Relays.

MR. DON YODER teaches English I and II and IA and IIA. He also coaches our golf team.

MISS JEAN TRIBOLET teaches freshman English and literature. She is also girls' counselor, a junior class sponsor, and a counselor in the Guidance offices.

MR. WILLIAM WALKER teaches biology, driver training, beginning drawing, and physical education. He is also the coach of our track and cross country teams.

MISS YODER is our girls' physical education and health teacher. She also sponsors the Girls Athletic Association and is a sophomore class sponsor.

MRS. LOUISE ULRICH of the Home Economics Department teaches home-making and is a sponsor for Future Homemakers of America Club.

MR. ALVIN WARSTLER, head of the Industrial Arts Department, spends his time teaching vocational machines and general shop courses. He is also treasurer and ticket manager of the high school Athletics Association.

Senior English and literature are taught by MISS BARBARA ZOOK, head of the English Department. She also sponsors Booster Club.

Cafeteria Personnel

Mrs. Ruth Halpin, manager of our fine cafeteria, is here with her cookbook planning another one of those tasty meals served for both junior and high school students. She also plans and serves meals to any civic groups who wish to use the cafeteria.

Mrs. Florence Leonard, our lady custodian, is here smiling as she goes about her daily tasks.

Harold Spencer and Clarence Ganger are the custodians who clean our building at night.

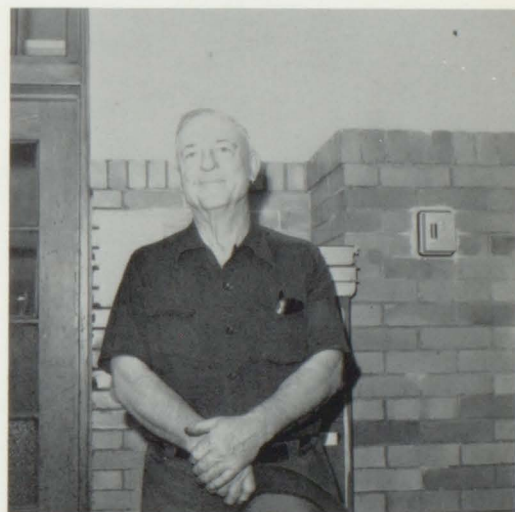

Mrs. Phyllis Clingerman, Myrtle Shrine, Edna Welty, Janice Ernsberger, Helen Ronk and Lorena Detwiler are the cooks who prepare the fine meals that satisfy those hunger pains we feel most every day at 11:30.

Custodians

Messrs. S. D. Brunk, Shirl Foos, and Ed Hile were caught by the Crimson photographer at a coffee break from their daily duties of keeping our building clean.

Jerry Holtzinger, the school engineer, helps to keep us warm when the winter winds blow.

This is one of the truck loads of papers that the seniors collected on their paper drive in the fall.

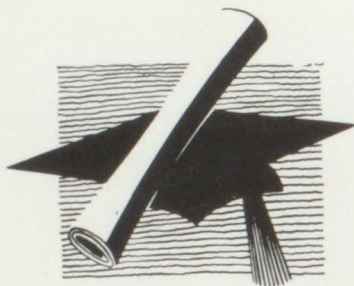

Seniors . . .

One of the various activities of our senior year was the paper drive in the fall. As the year passed, this, and many other precious, happy, fun-filled hours drew to a close. As we heard the echoes of Pomp and Circumstance, we realized we were closing a door, the door of adolescence, and opening the door of maturity.

Seniors

The senior sponsors were Miss Kyler, Mr. Peterson, Mr. Kastner, and Mr. Haney.

The senior class officers who fulfilled their jobs well were Georgianna Pestow, secretary; Diann Paul, sergeant-at-arms; Jim Miller, president; Ivan Makximenko, sergeant-at-arms; George Weiland, treasurer; and Geoff Hartzler, vice-president. Sponsors, shown in the background, are Mr. Kastner and Mr. Haney.

As seniors we entered the halls of GHS for our final year. We regretted to say that it has come all too soon. The football games were over before we knew it, and basketball was next. The paper drive we sponsored was a success along with a lot of fun.

Our weeks were filled with studies, quizzes, and school activities followed by weekends full of ball games, dates, and dances. Everyone was anxiously awaiting that first snowfall, along with Christmas, and of course, the well-known research paper. The second semester brought thrills of the Sectional Tourney. Along with spring came the Goshen Relays and our long-awaited Junior-Senior Prom.

Before we realized it, our senior year was nearing its end; and we found ourselves walking down the aisle to the strains of Pomp and Circumstance with diplomas in our hands and memories never to be forgotten.

Editor Carol Mast is counting Jim Miller's 300 pennies that he saved to pay for his yearbook.

The graduates of the class of '63 are shown receiving their diplomas in June, 1963. We, too, looked forward to this occasion.

It seems that the seniors in 205 are enjoying a good laugh. Shown in the foreground are Janis Edson, Jim Siegmann, Billy Sajko, and Phil Troyer.

We will never forget our Senior Redskins Mike Hostetler, Reg VanderReyden, and Dan Chiddister.

GUESS WHO? Kathy O'Dea, peering through the door of room 101A, looks as though she is a member of the BEATLES' FAN CLUB. She frequently reminded us that she was waiting for her yearbook.

The officers are Terry Golden and Don Leedy, sergeant-at-arms; Jeff Rogers, vice-president; Becky Inebinet, secretary; Mike Rensberger, president; and Monty Peffley, treasurer; The dog is one who insisted on getting in the picture.

Upperclassmen at Last!

Our sponsors are Miss Tribolet, Mr. Reynolds, Miss Blair, and Mr. Allyn.

As we entered the corridors of GHS in the fall of '63, a new sensation was awaiting us—we were upperclassmen! We were also delighted when we received our long-awaited class rings which we had ordered in our sophomore year.

Our sponsors, Mr. Allyn, Miss Tribolet, Miss Blair, and Mr. Reynolds, put a great deal of time and effort toward our class projects. We really appreciate this and wish to thank them.

On November 8, 1963, we gave our class play "Line of Scrimmage," and it was a big success. During the year we also had a paper drive which helped to pay the expenses of our prom.

Yes, even juniors are late to class! Becky Yoder and Jeanne Redsecker are getting their tardy slips from Miss Tribolet.

John Nagle, Kathy Pafas, Mr. Allyn, Sandy Sharpe, Becky Inebnit, Meredith Rumsey, Jill Ogle, and Steve Garman are shown here planning the prom, the "Gay 90's."

Once again the doors of GHS opened; and the class of 1966 entered as sophomores, greatly anticipating the year ahead and planning to make it one of their best.

Selling concessions at the Goshen-Penn football game was our first fund-raising project of the year. Our other big projects of the year were the Sweetheart Dance and the Sophomore Variety Show.

Our sophomore year ended with the buying of classrings and the knowledge that next year, when we again enter these halls, it will be as UPPERCLASS-MEN!

We look toward the future

The Swingin' Capers have performed at some of our after the game dances and also played for our Sweetheart Dance.

Kneeling are Andy Purvis and Butch Grinstead. Standing in back are Tom Curtis, Mark Harper, and Mike Curtis.

Hearts, Songs, and Flowers

February 14 is Valentine's Day and at GHS that meant a show of hearts, a selection of songs, and a gift of flowers. Students and sweethearts bought red and white carnations from the Sunshine Society and Singing Valentines were presented to sweethearts by the Boys' Quartet.

Miss Judy Delcamp, sophomore, was chosen Sweetheart Queen by the student body and reigned over the holiday dance following the Goshen-Riley basketball game.

Teachers also recognize Valentine's Day at school with attractive bulletin board decorations. Miss Arnold stands beside hers in the typing room.

Standing: Don Troyer, president; Steve Huber, treasurer; Floyd Trospen, vice-president; Rick Guipe, sergeant-at-arms. Seated: Beccy Leedy, sergeant-at-arms; Pat Burdette, secretary.

The class of '67 timidly entered the halls of GHS in September. For those first few days, Goshen High School seemed awfully big! But after a while, we were in the full swing of things.

Assisted by our sponsors Miss Low, Mr. Chandler, and Mrs. Schmidt, we completed our first money-making project—selling concessions at our final football game.

Our class has already set a few records. We are the largest class ever to enter GHS. Also, the number of freshman students on the honor roll this year was the highest representation of any one class.

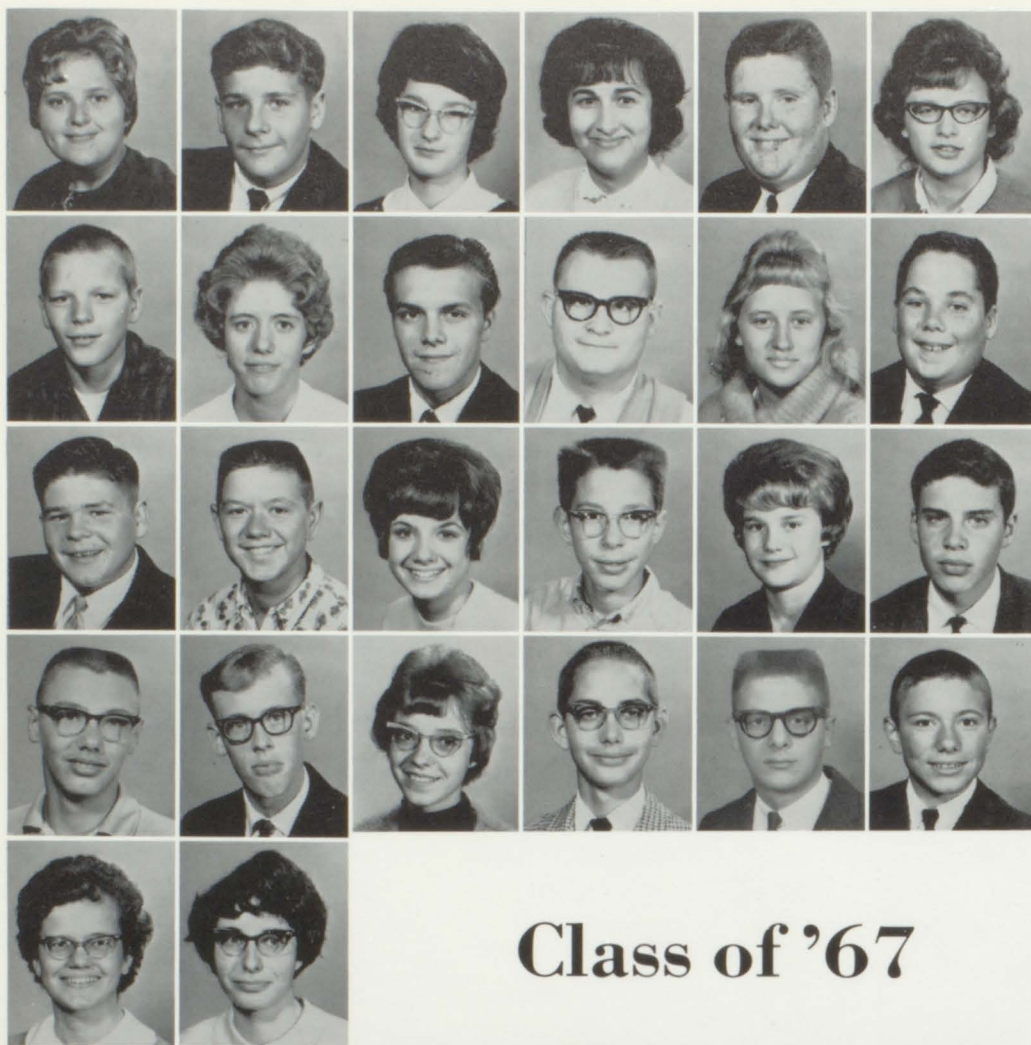

When the year was over we were sorry to see it end; but if our class moves on the next three years at the pace it has this year, GHS will not forget the class of '67 for many years to come.

We were glad to be a part of GHS

The sponsors of the freshman class were Mrs. Schmidt, Miss Low, and Mr. Chandler.

Seen at many of the basketball games is the team cheer which is done by the cheerleaders of both teams.

Sports . . .

We at GHS have depended upon all our athletes to maintain the fine reputation and competitive spirit of Goshen both at home and away. Whether it has been a good or bad season has never mattered to the boys who represent GHS in all of our scholastic sports. Their hard work, long hours, and desire to win have established standards of sportsmanship and fair play which future Redskin athletes will find difficult to surpass. This section is devoted to OUR HEROES of the athletic field.

New Grid Coach Experiences

Coach Springer urges his team on as six Goshen players move in for the tackle against Penn.

GOSHEN'S 1963 football season was initiated with some changes. Joseph Springer replaced Robert Rumsey as head coach, freshman coach Bill Doba and backfield coach Jim Phend switched places, and Norman Shires became the B-Team mentor. The Redskin varsity started out the season with a win over Concord but were then delegated to eight straight losses and finished the season with an 0-6 Conference record.

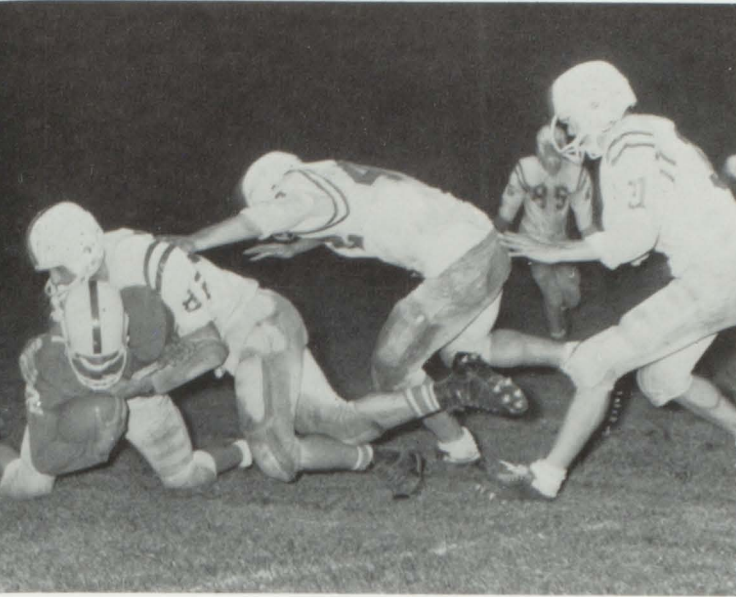

Seniors Gary Claybaugh and Dan Chiddester served as this year's co-captains. Offensive and defensive players of the week were also designated by the coaching staff. At the end of the year, Junior Dennis Ditmars was awarded both the Most Valuable Player award and the Outstanding Lineman award; Dan Miller was presented the Ed Anglemeyer Memorial Trophy; all presentations were voted on by this year's letterman.

Of the 24 lettermen, 12 have graduated, leaving a nucleus of 11 returning lettermen plus a fine group of underclassmen for next year. All are looking for an improved and successful season in '64-'65.

Fred LeCount starts to eat the football as he loses six yards against Penn.

Disappointing Season

Rick Huber (82), Dan Chidister (42), and Dan Miller (31) smear another Concord player.

Mike Yoder (32) gets ten yards against Penn as Fred LeCount (41) helps out.

Gary Claybaugh (3) is smothered by three Elkhart players after gaining seven yards.

Gary Claybaugh (3) gets help from coaches, as all eyes are forward during the Concord game.

The NIHSC proved to be the toughest area in Indiana; three of the state's top five teams were in our conference, competing against the Redskins.

Coach Bill Ennis was hampered by inexperienced swimmers; very few of the team had swum competitively before; this also caused a serious lack of depth behind the frontline swimmers, particularly in the sprints.

Though mostly juniors and sophomores, the squad still set four new GHS pool records and tied one. Kim Dunnick holds the record in the breaststroke, while John Fessler owns two in the freestyle events. The backstroke mark, held by graduated Dave Williams, was tied by Ron Leer. Steve Steele also set a new total points mark in diving.

Cosgrove Leads Redskins

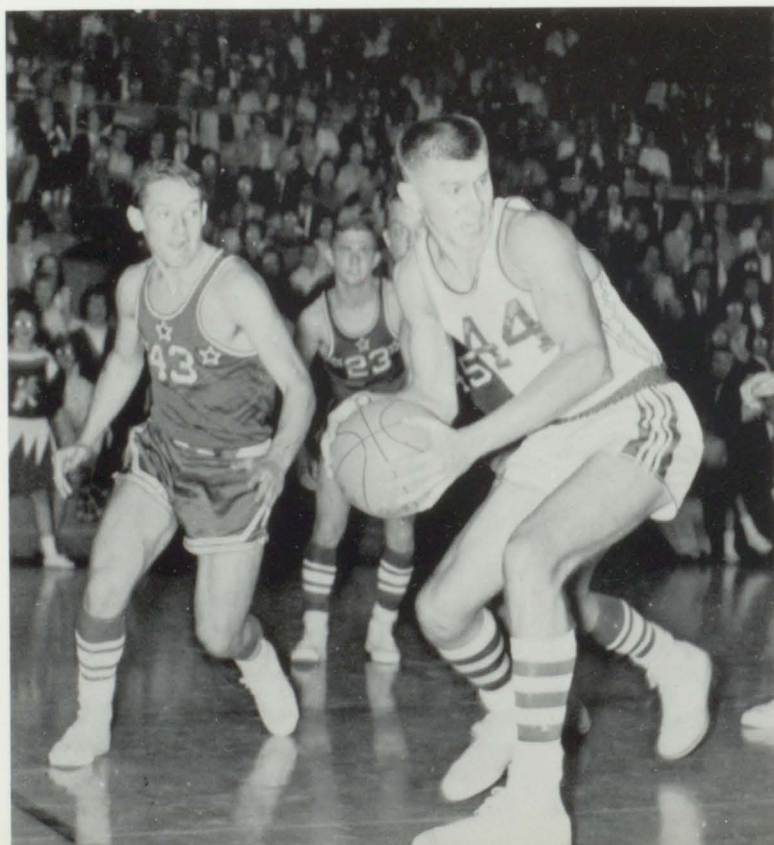

The beginning of another winning season has just unfolded as Captain John Corporon and Steve Stone dart through the barrier, prior to the Middlebury game.

Rodney Mack drives around Bearcat Odis Rhodes.

Leon Davis (55) snares a rebound as Kurt Schelle and Ivan Makximenko await further chances during the South Bend Central clash.

Ivan Makximenko is about to be tied up by Middlebury's Paul Zook (43).

REDSKIN VARSITY (Standing) Jim E. Miller, Kurt Schelle, Ivan Makximenko, John Corporon, Paul Williams, and Steve Stone. (Kneeling) Jack Peterson, Jeff Rogers, Bill Edson, Rodney Mack, and Bob Cross.

Jim Miller dribbles out of trouble as John Kaufman (15), Allen Jackson (5), and Kurt Schelle (40) look on.

In a big pile-up near the baseline, John Corporon, Kurt Schelle, and Jimmy Ward of Central go down in what looks like a jump ball.

Coach Art Cosgrove again led the Goshen Redskins to another winning season, the fifth straight. The "Skins" compiled a 13-7 mark before the sectionals, with a 5-4 record in the conference; but for the first time in the last three years, the Goshen Holiday Tourney Trophy failed to stay here in Goshen; we dropped the championship game to Fort Wayne Central.

Erratic might best describe the team. When we were shooting well, the spoils of victory were ours; but when the shots didn't drop, points and wins were hard to come by. Also many times during the season, Goshen supposedly was handicapped by a definite lack of height, though very rarely were we outrebounded.

Captain John Corporon, while playing all three positions, proved to be Goshen's leading rebounder, and hotshot guard, Bill Edson, led the scorers.

Springer Leads First Wrestling Team To Winning Season!

Jim Dye is about ready to start his bout with Dale Carpenter of Northfield. The referee is Mr. Robert Helper of Goshen.

Coach Joe Springer led the first wrestling team in GHS history to a winning season. Mr. Springer's first-year wrestlers played only non-conference teams of only two or three years' experience. Nine lettermen will be coming back next year to fill the twelve spots needed to play a much-tougher host of teams.

This year's squad was led by Jim Johnson who had a 7-win and 0-lost record and by Jim LeCount who won 6 and lost 0. Also having good records were Jim Dye 5 and 2; Jim Dunn 5 and 2, and Phil Blosser 4 and 1.

Most Valuable Player Paul Rhodes led Goshen's golf team to a 2-12 record in its first year of competition. Paul was helped by senior letterman Steve Fiedeke and returning lettermen Dick Edwards, Dick Anderson and John Taylor.

This year's team didn't have a great record, but they gained valuable experience through Mr. Yoder's guidance and coaching. They met teams with ten to twenty years of experience.

Next year's team will have four returning lettermen and a fine crop of B-team members.

Tennis Takes Crown Again!

Mr. Fields accepts NIHSC trophy from Mr. Sovine and tennis team Phil Yoder, Tom Kintigh, Ivan Makximenko, Paul Williams, Don Leedy, and Monty Peffly.

Led by Most Valuable Player, Ivan Makximenko, Coach Tom Sovine's tennis team captured the NIHSC trophy for the third time in the last four years and the fourth for Sovine since 1952.

The varsity unit of Ivan Makximenko, John Corporon, Paul Williams and Tom Kintigh compiled a combined match record of 33-7, while completing a perfect 8-0 season. The championship wasn't decided until a near-final match decision over unbeaten and defending titleholder, Elkhart.

At the beginning of the season, hopes were not at peak heights for an extraordinary campaign. But the record and the trophy speak for themselves!

Next year lettermen Kintigh, Leedy, and Peffley return along with a sturdy B-Team with expectations of upholding one of Goshen High School's most flourishing traditions—the NIHSC tennis championship.

Goshen Relay — Midwest's Largest

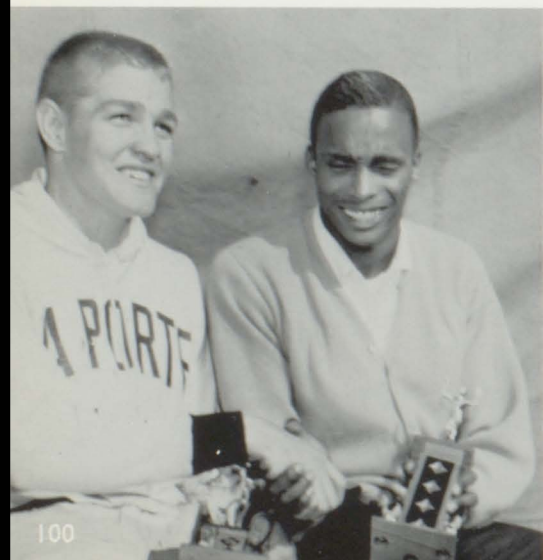

The first race of the Class A Sprint Medley Relay is off. Gary Tolleston, on the far left, was the eventual victor.

The twenty-first running of the Goshen Relays was held on April 20, 1963, under sunny skies in balmy temperatures. Over 850 athletes from 39 schools participated in the meet expertly staged by Athletic Director Paul Underwood. A large gallery enjoyed the exciting afternoon in which 9 new Relays' records were broken and 3 new state marks were set.

Jerry Saffel set new Relays records in both the high and low hurdles. Bernie Rivers broke his own Relays mark in the 100 yard dash with a brilliant 9.6 seconds.

Eugene Fain, Gary Roosevelt miler, is about to break the tape and win his specialty.

Clubs . . .

Time passed rapidly after our many school organizations set up their schedules. Club meetings, band, orchestra, and choir concerts, parties, variety shows—these and numerous other activities kept our spare moments well occupied. Through these organizations we have learned to meet new situations, how to accept responsibilities, and how to work with others.

Monica Daub, bookkeeper, and Barbara Herring are counting and depositing Crimson sales receipts.

Steve Ganger, Dave Lewallen, and Sandy Sharpe help to sell the advertising which made our book financially possible.

Carol Mast, editor of the '64 book, spent many hours in Room 101A after school writing copy, proofreading, and planning the pages which make our book worth reading.

Peggy Grant, Beckie Yoder, and Tanja Federow are sorting pictures for the features pages of the book.

Pam Hoffman and Sally Biller spent their noon hours planning layouts for the Club's section of the book.

Carol Mast, editor, Sally Biller, Nan Schnobel, Beverly Helman, Pam Hoffman, and Barbara Herring are shown here looking over pictures and copy for the publication of the '64 yearbook.

"Leve est opus cum multi laborem partuntur."

"Light is the task when many share the toil."

—Homer, the Illiad

Seeking the uncommon, many Latin students found their tasks lighter as they shared the projects and activities of the Goshen High School Latin Club.

Many "domini et dominae" of GHS with their respective "servi et servae" became better friends by sharing the toil of the annual candy sale and helping with concessions.

The members met regularly each month to share meetings full of fun and Latin.

High on the list of favorite activities shared by many were the Roman Christmas Party, the formal and fun initiation, and the Roman Banquet as well as the State Convention and State and National Latin Contests.

"Nihil vulgare te dignum videri potest."
"Nothing common can seem worthy of you."

Six years ago, Le Cercle Français was organized for the benefit of those students who wished to augment their knowledge of the French people, their language, and their country.

Club membership now totals eighty-three students. To be a member in the club, it is necessary to have taken French, or to be presently taking it.

Club activities include films, parties, discussions, singing, programs, and book reviews. The year is climaxed by a Mardi Gras celebration in the spring.

Officers for Le Cercle Français this year are: president, Lois Kauffman; vice-president, Barbara Holdread; secretary, Beckie Yoder; and treasurer, Mary Foreman. Mr. Robert Fancil is the sponsor.

Council Represents Student Body

Student Council is composed of four class presidents and five students elected from each class. The group seeks to promote understanding between the student body and the administration. By acting as a liaison between the two, the Council constantly tries to evaluate and improve school policies and thus boost school spirit.

It sponsors dances, supervises noon activities, plans the election of cheerleaders, and arranges for the Goshen High School Relay Queen and her court.

Officers are Becki Yoder, secretary; Mr. Mathews, sponsor; Kim Dunnick, treasurer; Don Riley, president; Jim Miller, vice-president; is not shown.

The object of Euclideans Club is to study the phases of mathematics not usually found in high school mathematics courses.

Any student who has completed the course in plane geometry or who is enrolled in plane geometry at the time he applies for membership in this organization may become a member. His mathematics grades in high school must average "B" or better or he must be recommended by his mathematics teacher for membership.

The Euclideans prepare and distribute the football programs to finance an annual trip to math contests.

Sunshine Society

Our Goshen chapter of the statewide Sunshine Society has as its goals charity, love, kindness, helpfulness, and giving intelligent service to our community. The motto of our Society is "Others." The Sunshine girl's school projects include a used-book sale to the student body, auditorium programs for World Day of Prayer and Thanksgiving, and the first day of school we presented each teacher with an apple. For Thanksgiving we made favors for the convalescent homes and at Christmas we sponsored a toy drive for nearby orphanages.

Our society also holds an annual Easter Sunday Service for the community, a "Dad and Daughter Banquet," a "Mother and Daughter Tea," a farewell breakfast honoring our senior members, and a picnic for the freshman girls. Each year we contribute to the Riley Hospital Fund and the Sunshine Nurses Scholarship. We earned money from football concessions, and from a basketball game dance.

Chatting in the Sunshine Lounge before going to class are Bev. Butler, Mary Riddle, Mary Gray, Beth Murphy, and Jane Cripe.

Future Homemakers Work Together

Future Homemakers of America is the club at GHS for home economics majors. It is a national youth organization which aims to help its members evaluate themselves and their worth to others, to strengthen their education for future use and to encourage good citizenship through homemaking.

This year the club sold basketball pencils, checked coats for home ball games, gave a Christmas party at Hutchinson's Nursing Home, sponsored a Mother-Daughter tea, a May-Day program, and a roller skating party.

Officers are Sue Lung, secretary; Dawn Trook, first vice-president; Vickie Elliot, song leader; Thelma Harshberger, president; Diana Phebus, second vice-president. Row 2: Pam Roose, treasurer; Carla Winterrowd, historian; Diana Lechlitter, editor; Sue Etsinger, project chairman; Mrs. Wilbur L. Harshberger, chapter mother; Mrs. Louise Ulrich, sponsor.

Advertising . . .

The staff of the 1964 Crimson is sincerely grateful to our advertisers who made this book financially possible. As students of GHS, we can show our appreciation by using their products and services.

Mr. Moore, who took all our CRIMSON senior pictures, is shown photographing Tana Longcor, GHS graduate of the class of 1963. He also took many of our clubs, classrooms, and features shots. Thanks to him for many of the outstanding pictures in our '64 CRIMSON.

Dear Classmates,

In planning your '64 yearbook, there have been tense and exciting moments. We have tried to present to you the story of this GHS year in the best way we know how. Much work goes into producing a yearbook, and I would like to express my thanks to those who have made it possible.

The first person who deserves a lot of thanks is our advisor, Mrs. Berniece Dwyer. She was always ready to help us when we needed it. Her encouragement will never be forgotten.

Our advertisers have done much to make our book financially possible. This we appreciate very much.

I would like to thank our CRIMSON photographer, Alan Husted, for his time and patience in securing our advertising and candid shots. Thanks go to Mr. Gordon Moore who took many of our clubs, classrooms, features, and senior pictures. Without his co-operation, the production of this book would have been most difficult. All of our sports pictures, as well as others, were provided by Mel Troyer of the Goshen News.

Most of all, my staff deserves much credit for their many extra hours spent on writing copy, planning layouts, and getting their pages ready to be shipped. I would like to give special thanks to Pam Hoffman and Sally Biller who have helped me beyond the call of duty.

Much of the fine typing you see in this book should be credited to Janet Dunbar and Tanja Federow. They spent many hours of continuous typing and proofreading.

Our goal was to make this yearbook one that you will cherish for many years to come. I am sure it holds memories for each and every student of GHS. We appreciate the co-operation you and the faculty have given us. I hope you enjoy your '64 CRIMSON as much as we enjoyed bringing it to you.

Sincerely yours,

Carol Mast

Carol Mast
Editor, '64 CRIMSON

Acknowledgments

The CRIMSON photographer, Alan Husted, GHS senior, was tireless in running about the school, campus, and town getting our advertising and candid pictures.

One of our typists, Tanja Federow, Senior, spent many hours after school and at noon typing our student index and other yearbook copy.

Here is Mel Troyer of the Goshen News in one of his photographic moods. Thanks go to him for all of our sports and many candid shots. He also took the pictures of our cheerleaders. His cooperation, leg work, and generosity have helped to make our yearbook what it is.

Gene Jones, GHS senior and art major, is seen here at work on one of the CRIMSON pages. Gene has been a member of the CRIMSON staff since he was a freshman. Our yearbooks have been much more interesting because of his many art contributions.

These are the halls of GHS
at last deserted and at rest.
Much traffic passes day by day
1032 is the count today.

These are the halls of activity scrambling of feet and last-minute goodbys.

We see many hues of Crimson red as our teams strive to stay ahead.

At Christmas, things are lively singing carols, praising highly.

Will you be my valentine?
is heard through the halls at sweetheart time.

These are the halls with memories dear as seniors come close to the end of the year.
We march to the strains of Pomp and Circumstance as we leave the gym with a sigh and a glance.

These are the halls of GHS
at last deserted and at rest.
